Raynolds the from active cares of life, residence nallilo, N. M., on November 5, 1906. sther morning, the Childrens' Home 315 North Arno street, says: Society of New Mexico and Arizona, attacks of backache stretching over a of the territory, was launched. It has for its object the finding of homein childless homes. The organiza-tion is non-demoniational. When a child, reared as a Presbyterian, Catholic, Baptist or any other denomination, is found, an effort will be made to place it in the home of people having the same religion. It is said that no paper of incorporation ever filed in this territory was signed by as many prominent men. Chief among them in the order in which the names are affixed are: Associate ity," Justice W. H. Pope, Chief Justice William J. Mills, J. J. Hagerman, cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, sample and try them. For sale by all druggists. Lauglin, Dr. J. S. Easterday, J. E. States, Franklin, Hiram Hadley, E. A. Casoon, J. The present headquarters of the organization will be at Roswell but later it may be removed to Albuquer-No capital stock is mentioned. In speaking of the work of the organization Rev. Lukeus said: "Our society believes that in fifty years there will be no orphanages and none will be needed. We wish to discourage such an institution in this territory, although one is now contemplated. In the course of time we will establish a receiving orphanage in New Mexico where parentless children can be cared for from the time they are found until they are placed in homes. It will also be our work to find children who are in vile surroundings and try and better their conditions. We especially desire the co-operation of the churches without regard to denomination. "I have been made superintendent of the organization for New Mexico and Arizona and will travel from ical advice free.
